School Questionnaire

Franklin Academy is a co-educational college preparatory boarding and day school for students with Nonverbal Learning Differences, Autism Spectrum Disorders, and Asperger’s Syndrome in grades 8 – 12. Located in East Haddam, Connecticut, the school provides a safe, consistent, and structured environment where students belong to a natural peer group, grow into independent young adults, and are prepared to succeed in colleges and universities across the nation. Our unique and integrated cognitive skills based curriculum combines academic rigor and executive functioning support while promoting emotional regulation and healthy relationship strategies. This holistic approach allows students to attend a school where they are understood, feel included, and flourish in a community that fosters success.
